

SCIENTIFIC EDUCATION.

AN INTERESTING ADDRESS TO THE GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

Mrs. Mary H. Hunt speaks at the Capitol and her speech is greeted with loud applause from the Georgia Legislature.

Last evening Mrs. Mary H. Hunt, of Hyde Park, Mass., superintendent of the department of scientific education of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, delivered an address to the Georgia Legislature. The hall of representatives was the place selected for the address, and at an early hour the seats in the auditorium and galleries were filled, and the galleries were crowded with people anxious to hear the eloquent advocate of scientific instruction.

Mrs. Hunt brought with her the map of the United States, which was hung on the wall, on which all the states and territories that have adopted the textbooks on that course of instruction, are represented in white, numbering thirty-four.

The nine states having no such laws were outlined in black. Nineteen of those states that have temperance laws have penalties provided for any violation of the statutes, and among them is the state of Louisiana.

Georgia is well represented by a black spot, despite the efforts of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union during the past years.

Mrs. Hunt was introduced by Hon. R. H. Jackson, chairman of the committee on education of the house of representatives, in a neat and appropriate speech.

Mrs. Hunt began by referring to the excitement over the recent senatorial election, and made the point that our people consider the voice of the people as the voice of freedom and liberty.

But she thought that the enlightenment of the masses was left to the schools, and she deprecated the fact that the people are lacking in the knowledge of the true principles of scientific and hygienic education. She showed how any question that arises is decided by the voice of the people, and that being the case she made the point that the people should be informed.

She quoted Blackstone in the saying that "law is an embodied sentiment" and showed that it is difficult to enforce the law without the sentiment of the people coinciding.

Of the 67,000 population of the city of Atlanta, she had reason to believe that the majority think it no harm to take a little alcohol. She quoted different authorities, among the finest chemists and physicians of the age, showing that alcohol is a poison, and the worst of all poisons, from the fact that a taste creates an insatiable thirst for more, so that one indulging in the habit becomes a slave.

After dwelling at length on the requirements of the people, Mrs. Hunt entered into a full explanation of the workings of the department of scientific education.

She showed how it had been beneficial to the government schools of the army and navy, where it has already been adopted, and in all the state educational institutions where the textbooks have been introduced.

"My people perish for the lack of knowledge," she quoted from the prophets, and applied the text to the condition of the people of the state where the subject of scientific education has never been discussed.

In conclusion, she showed the benefits resulting from a proper understanding of the physical and hygienic requirements of mankind, and uttered a powerful plea for the introduction of textbooks on that line, in the schools of the city and state.

Quite a large number of the members of the senate and house of the general assembly of the state of Georgia were present, and during the delivery of the address, the hall was so quiet that you could have heard a pin drop, because of the interesting nature of the speech.

A resolution of thanks was offered and passed unanimously at the conclusion of Mrs. Hunt's address, which was greeted with round after round of applause.

Knownothingism rampant. Editor Constitution: Is the Knownothing flag to be raised in Atlanta? Last night, at the "citizens' meeting," Haygood declared that one of the candidates should not receive votes because he was not born in the state of Georgia.

Are the good people of Atlanta, so many of whom were born in the state of Georgia, and other countries, but who are substantial citizens of Atlanta, to be put under the black flag?

THE TICKET TO VOTE. Editor Constitution: Let every citizen who values the welfare of Atlanta vote this ticket today. It is safe and reliable.

DEBATE CELEBRATES

The Glorious Victory of Her Honored Son, Senator Gordon.

Senator Gordon was given a grand ovation in Decatur last night. The people of Decatur, his home county, were determined not to be outdone in celebrating his victory by any other county in the state.

And they were not. Indeed the little town of Decatur was painted in crimson here by the jollifiers last night.

Senator Gordon and several others made short addresses to the crowd.

ANNOUNCEMENTS. To the Public. I respectfully announce myself as a candidate for Mayor of Atlanta, subject to the primary on November 21st.

If I am elected, I will do my best to make a good mayor. If another is nominated, I will support the nominee with pleasure.

Walter R. Brown for Mayor. I announce myself as a candidate for mayor on the following platform:

1. Equalization of taxes. 2. Liberal public improvements, and payment by installments for sidewalks, Belgian blocks and sewers. 3. Atlanta must purchase a new cemetery, which is an absolute necessity.

4. A clean, honest and healthful administration and every department of the city government to be conducted on a progressive and liberal plan for the benefit of the entire people. 5. There should be no cliques, combinations or backroom caucuses to dictate our city policy.

I elected I shall assume the duties of chief executive, untrammelled, unpledged and absolutely free from all promises. I request all citizens who are in favor of a progressive and honest government to vote for me in the primary next Friday.

WALTER R. BROWN. For Mayor of Atlanta. The friends of HON. ANTON KONTZ announce him as a candidate for the majority of Atlanta. They point with pride to his record as a citizen, as a business man, as an officer, as a public servant and as a friend. Atlanta needs a man of nerve, of property, of high personal character, who relies upon his own judgment, and who cannot be swayed for money. Such a man is Anton Kontz, and as such the suffrages of the people are asked for him.

MR. P. J. MORAN will be supported in the primary for election to the aldermanic vacancy on the south side. At the solicitation of many friends, ANDREW J. SHROPSHIRE is a candidate for Alderman from the second ward, subject to the nominating convention.

To the People of the City of Atlanta. I have been solicited by a very large number of citizens from the several wards on the north side of the city of Atlanta to allow the use of my name in the race for alderman from the north side. So urgent has been the request that I have consented to make the race for alderman. I will say to the people of the city of Atlanta, if I am elected to the position of alderman, I will give my best efforts to the office and will take the same as a lasting compliment.

I hereby ask the citizens of Atlanta to vote for me in the primary, November 21st, 1890. Respectfully, FRANK P. RICE.

To the Voters of Atlanta. Several days ago my friends announced me without my knowledge or consent as a candidate for alderman at large. I have nothing to profit by, and have therefore no personal interest in occupying the position, but believing that the fifth ward (in which I live) is in fairness and justice entitled to representation in the board of aldermen—every ward in the city being represented there but the fifth—at the earnest solicitation of my friends in the ward, I have decided to allow the use of my name, and if my fellow-citizens think that I can be of service in this capacity, I shall nominate me at the primary. I am willing if elected to assume the duties of the position in the interest of the people to the best of my ability.

Respectfully, JOHN TYLER COOPER. The friends of JOSHUA T. Y. announce him as a candidate for councilman from the first ward, subject to the primary on November 21st. The friends of DR. W. M. CURTIS announce him as a candidate for councilman from the first ward, subject to the primary election November 21st.

A large number of taxpayers in the second ward, and a great many of his friends throughout the city, announce the name of MR. GORDON NOEL HURTELL for the council from the second ward, subject to the primary. nov13-dtd

SECOND WARD. The friends of WILLIAM A. HANSELL announce him as a candidate for council from the second ward, subject to the action of the city executive committee. oct 28 dtd

H. C. SAWTELL is announced, by his friends, as a candidate for councilman of the second ward, subject to the action of the citizens' meeting. oct 30 dtd

The friends of MR. ARNOLD BROYLES announce him as a candidate for councilman from the third ward, subject to the primary November 21st. The friends of DR. C. E. MURPHY announce him a candidate for councilman from the fourth ward. We are authorized to announce the name of HENRY B. THOMPSON for councilman from the sixth ward, subject to primary on November 21, 1890. nov16-dtd

At the solicitation of my friends I announce myself a candidate for councilman from the fifth ward, subject to democratic nomination. nov15-till day J. D. TURNER.

Announcement. At the request of many of my friends I am a candidate for councilman in the sixth ward, subject to the nomination. Very respectfully, S. FRANK WARREN.

A Card. At the solicitation of many friends, I announce myself a candidate for council from the sixth ward, subject to the primary of the 21st, and ask the support and votes of my friends. If elected, I will serve the city as I always have done, to the best of my ability. Respectfully, A. L. HOLBROOK.

JUDGE JAMES R. BROWN, Late judge of the Cherokee circuit, says Kontz is eligible.

Here is what he says:

ATLANTA, Ga., November 20, 1890.—Hon. A. L. Kontz, My Dear Sir: In response to your inquiry as to my opinion upon the question of your eligibility to the office of mayor of the city of Atlanta, I beg to say that I see nothing in the act of the 12th of November, 1889, to disqualify you from holding the office.

But for the respect I have for the opinions of distinguished lawyers who, I understand, have expressed opinions to the contrary, I should never have entertained the slightest doubt of your eligibility from anything which appears in the act of November 12, 1889, above referred to.

I understand your term of office as councilman will expire before the term for which the mayor is elected commences, and by the very terms of the statute above referred to councilmen and aldermen are declared ineligible to any other municipal office during the terms for which they were elected—mark the language—ineligible to any other municipal office.

Now, when will the new mayor come to the office of mayor? Not when elected, but when he is sworn in and enters upon the discharge of the duties of the office. So it will be seen that the disqualifying language in the statute refers to the time of entering upon the discharge of the duties of the office and not to the time of election. And I apprehend this construction of the statute will be found to be in harmony with the current of authority both in England and this country. If it were necessary, I apprehend it would not be difficult to show that there is nothing in the spirit and object of the statute to disqualify you; but to my mind the language of the statute is so clear that I do not deem it necessary to argue that question. Very truly yours, JUDGE JAMES R. BROWN.

Colonel Nat Hammond, Judge John R. Hopkins, Hon. A. H. Cox and other prominent and able lawyers say that Kontz is ineligible. Vote for Hemphill who is eligible.

SOCIETY GOSSIP.

All society is on the qui vive of pleasant expectation for this evening, as the ball pounce is to be held at the Kimball and will undoubtedly present a scene of unusual beauty and elegance. The ballroom will be beautifully decorated, the music will be delightful and the favors and supper will surpass anything that have heretofore been given.

Dr. J. G. Armstrong left yesterday afternoon for Gainesville, Ga., where he went to present an entertainment under the auspices of the largest military company there. He will undoubtedly prove eminently successful in this, and his fellow-citizens think that I can deliver some from Hamlet, Henry VIII and Richard III, together with his lecture, and will make the evening very interesting and instructive.

A very delightful dance will be given this evening by Miss Bessie Kimball to a large number of her friends, at the home of her father, No. 25 Kimball street. It will, doubtless, prove a very enjoyable affair.

Miss Brook, a very lovely and charming young lady from Richmond, Va., is the guest of Mrs. Clarence Knowles, of this city.

Miss Janie Smith, who has been visiting Miss Himmelfuth, of this city, left Tuesday for her home in Danville, Ky. Miss Smith made many friends while here, and their best wishes are with her.

Mr. J. C. Courtney and family are stopping at Mrs. For's, on Peachtree street.

Mrs. Clarence Knowles gave an elegant dinner party on Thursday evening, complimentary to two young lady guests, Miss Bagby and Miss Brook.

Miss Annie Speer is visiting her friend, Miss Robertson, in Chattanooga.

Mrs. Livingston Mims is visiting her mother in Mississippi. Her friends miss her bright and charming presence much.

O. M. Mitchell Post, Grand Army of the Republic, gave a most enjoyable campfire at post headquarters last evening. A large number of ladies and gentlemen were present, and the evening was delightfully spent. After an informal programme of literary and musical gems, refreshments were served by members of the women's relief corps. During the evening Mrs. W. M. Scott, the accomplished president of the corps, made an interesting statement in regard to the charity being conducted by the corps and the post.

Eugene Toombs Gato, of Bufala, Ala., is in the city, the guest of friends and relatives.

Miss Lella Johnson, of Bufala, Ala., is in the city on a short visit to friends and is the guest of Miss Howell Jackson.

Mrs. S. L. DeLoes and children, of Nashville, Tenn., are in the city on a visit to her mother, Mrs. M. C. French, 407 West Peters street.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church at Decatur will hold a bazaar for the sale of useful and fancy articles, in connection with an oyster supper, at Crockett's hall, Decatur, on Friday night, 21st.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Paul Howard, daughter of Dr. George J. Howard, of Augusta, and Colonel Thomas J. Ripley, a well-known and popular young attorney of Decatur. The ceremony will be performed in the Baptist church at Augusta, next Tuesday, at 3 o'clock p. m. The bride and groom are well known in Atlanta and Decatur society, and have a host of friends who will wish them much happiness.

The members of the T. D. C. club are requested to meet at A. J. Fowler's, 40 Watson street, Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Business relating to the anniversary dance to be given Christmas week will be discussed, and it is earnestly desired that all members be present.

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE NATIONAL GRANGE.

Recommendations for the Amelioration of the Condition of the Farmers of the United States.

After one of the most successful meetings in the history of the national convention of the Grange has adjourned.

Probably the most important part of the convention work is the report issued by the executive committee. Besides containing a great many things of interest to the order, it also makes recommendations that will be of great interest to the people of the country generally.

Congress is urged to fix the volume of currency at $40 to $50 per capita, instead of $17 as at present.

In the case of the currency plan of the alliance, the Grange recommends the direct lending of money by the government to the farmers at a percentage of 2 per cent.

Here is what the report says:

As to the currency policy.

The monetary policy of a government has also very much to do in influencing the prices of agricultural products.

so manifestly unjust can be maintained upon any fair business principle or legal right.

From our correspondence with foreign cotton exchanges, we are inclined to the opinion that if our American boards of trade, cotton exchanges and cotton manufacturers could, by legislation or otherwise, be induced to change their practice and take only actual fair on cotton bales, in lieu of the customary 6 per cent, that the cotton exchanges of other countries would do the same.

We, therefore, earnestly

EDITOR CONSTITUTION: The following appeared in yesterday's CONSTITUTION. Mr. Kontz has been proper to ignore answering it. The people of Atlanta can take it for granted that the actions of Colonel Hammond and Judge Hopkins are against him.

[Communicated.]

As to Mr. Kontz's Eligibility.

Is Mr. Kontz eligible as mayor?

This question has been extensively discussed throughout the city for some days. It is reported, on what appears to be good authority, that Mr. Kontz has consulted both Judge John L. Hopkins and Colonel N. J. Hammond on this point, and that both these eminent lawyers have decided that the law renders Mr. Kontz ineligible to the office of mayor. Now, is this true?

Does not Mr. Kontz owe it to himself and the citizens of Atlanta to make known the opinions of Judge Hopkins and Colonel Hammond if it be true that they have given opinions on this question? Can Mr. Kontz afford to allow himself to be elected mayor of Atlanta if there is a well-grounded suspicion of his entire eligibility?

Let Mr. Kontz disclose his information on this matter in the Evening Journal, that every citizen may know the truth, and that he may be able to determine not to cast his ballot for a candidate who, if elected, may cause incalculable trouble and perhaps great loss to our city? As a friend of Mr. Kontz, who knows him and esteems him very highly, the writer calls on him to publish his legal opinion and let the people know if he agreed with those of Colonel Cox, Mr. Ellis and other lawyers of prominence.

These opinions of Judge Hopkins and Colonel Hammond cannot be obtained or made public, except by Mr. Kontz himself, as lawyers can not disclose the suits of their clients. But if such opinions have been given and are now made public by Mr. Kontz, no thinking man can doubt but that they are adverse to the claims of Mr. Kontz as a qualified candidate for mayor. Is the editor of the Journal, who has been so kind to Mr. Kontz in the past, to allow him to take it with a cloud upon his title? It may be that he thinks he can, but surely the business interests of Atlanta—and every man, rich or poor, has a stake in these interests—cannot afford to run any such risk. Let Mr. Kontz speak out.

MR. KONTZ'S ELIGIBILITY

HON. A. L. KONTZ.—Dear Sir: You ask my opinion in regard to the act of the legislature approved November 12, 1889, in reference to councilmen and aldermen.

The act reads as follows: That from and after the passage of this act, councilmen and aldermen of the towns and cities of this state shall be ineligible to any other municipal office in said towns and cities during the term of office for which they were chosen.

In my opinion this act does not apply to councilmen and aldermen elected before the passage of the act and holding their offices at the time of the enactment. Laws are generally made to take effect in the future. To enforce this act against councilmen and aldermen who were elected previous to its passage would make it RETROACTIVE in effect. The fair, logical and legal construction of the act would be, councilmen and aldermen of the towns and cities of this state, elected after the passage of this act, shall be ineligible, etc. This definition and construction of the act would be in accord with the general principle.

In regard to the issue presented in eligibility or ineligibility, we would say, that eligibility is legally defined—ability or capacity to take or hold office; ineligibility, inability or incapacity to take or hold office; the adjective eligible, to take or hold office; the adjective ineligible, unable or incapable to take or hold office—that eligibility and ineligibility are to be construed with reference to the holding of office.

Substitute the legal definition of ineligible in the act, and the equivalent meaning of the word "during," in the time of, the act would read: That from and after the passage of this act, councilmen and aldermen of the towns and cities of this state shall be UNABLE, or incapable to take or to HOLD any other municipal office in said towns and cities IN THE TIME OF the term for which they were chosen. If the time or term for which the councilman or alderman was chosen has expired at the date of induction or installation into another office, this act would be no bar or disqualification.

Very truly yours,

[Signed]

Now, if you want a central lot that will double on your hands in a short while, investigate this one. And I handle all kinds of real estate, central, improved and vacant lots, houses and lots, farming lands, lands in large bodies, pine lands in south Georgia and Florida.

10,000 acres in one body, well wooded, will sell now for less than half that. A great chance for speculation. Come in and see me. All you want in real estate can be had of me. Come right along, your time next.

JOHN D. KELLY, No. 4 South Pryor Street.

Vote for A. L. Holbrook for councilman 6th ward.

Cotton Mill for Lease.

I HAVE A COTTON, OR FARM MILL, THAT I wish to rent to some practical manufacturer on very reasonable terms. Everything in running order for making yarn. Capacity 25,000 pounds per week. If desired, have 2000 looms that can be easily set in position. Power, latest improved Harris-Corliss engine. Two boilers that consume about three tons of coal in twelve hours run, to operate all machinery. Building a three-story brick. For full particulars address:

THE RAILROADS.

PRAISE FOR THE GEORGIA RAILROAD COMMISSION.

Other Matters of General, Special, and Personal Interest to Railroad Men.

Colonel Trammell, chairman, has received many letters of which the following is a sample, showing that the people appreciate the work the commission is doing. Especially has he received many on the subject of the establishment of depots in various parts of the state.

SAVANNAH, Ga., November 18, 1896.—To the Honorable Railroad Commissioners of Georgia, Atlanta, Ga.: We, the undersigned, interested in the wood market, both as producers and buyers in the whole trade, wish to thank you for the change made in your order of the 17th of October, 1896, fixing the rate of wood by the cord instead of weight. For several years past the railroad companies have been charging by weight, and as green wood weighs heavily by the cord, we have been paying exorbitant freight for a cord of eight cords. We feel that it is only just to us to be charged by the cord and not by weight.

The Tennessee Midland is for sale to the highest bidder. Several of its officials have been to Richmond and New York lately, but have not been successful in inducing favorable offers. Rumors, of course, have been already circulated that the road was sold, but they are incorrect, and the stock seems to be going begging on the market.

A delegation of Tallahassee men have been in Savannah the past few days perfecting arrangements to bring the Tallahassee Northern railroad to that town. The Philadelphia syndicate of capitalists, who have built street railways and waterworks in Tallahassee are behind the enterprise. They control a large amount of the property of the city, and are anxious to get the road through Georgia has been obtained under the name of Thomasville Southern. It will meet the Tallahassee at the state line, when the two lines will be consolidated and the name changed to suit.

A dispatch from Winchester, Ky., says: In 1893 this county voted $250,000 to aid in the construction of the Elizabethtown, Lexington and Big Sandy railroad, which runs through this county. Although the road was not built for a score of years afterwards, the bonds were sold, and the county has been paying interest on them ever since until this week, when the last bond was burned. The county debt is now $165,000, consisting of a turnpike debt of $65,000 and a railroad debt of $99,000.

The old story of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia system gobbling the Mobile and Ohio, has been revived again with new and complete details. It has been told so often that most everybody believes it, whether it is true or not.

A new swindling trick, of which transportation officials should be duly warned, is being worked as follows: The sharper obtains the ordinary personal business card of a railroad traveling agent. At a time when he knows this agent to be absent from his headquarters he writes to the proper officer of the road selected as a victim for transportation, signing the traveling agent's name and inclosing his card. He then watches the local postoffice for his reply, and if the latter, with the passes which have been asked for, comes for John Smith or John Brown, as the case may be, he applies for the letter in that name, and avails himself of its contents. This trick has been very shrewdly attempted from an Ohio town, and a word to the wise is not out of place.

The Tennessee and Coosa Valley railroad is now open from Atlanta to Sand Mountain, and trains are running on regular schedule time. This spur of the road was built by the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railway. It crosses the Tennessee river at Guntersville. When this road is completed it will give the Nashville and Chattanooga road a direct line to Huntsville and Anniston.

The grading of the Chattanooga Southern railroad has been completed from Gadsden to the Pigeon Mountain tunnel, and track-laying will begin at once on this section. As soon as the tunnel is opened work will begin on the Chattanooga section.

There is now a scheme on foot to extend the Fort Payne and Eastern road through to Birmingham, Ala., so as to make direct connections with the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis at that point.

The stockholders of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railway Company met Wednesday in annual session at the office of the company in Knoxville. Sixty-five per cent of a total of a little over 200,000 shares represented, nearly all of it by proxy; George E. J. Sanford, of Knoxville, being the only large stockholder present.

The only business done was the election of directors, as follows: Samuel Thomas, New York; Calvin S. Rice, Lima, O.; John H. Luman, New York; C. M. McGhee, Knoxville; E. J. Sanford, of Knoxville, being the only large stockholder present.

The directors will meet in New York in a few days and elect officers, but it is understood that there will be no changes in the present officials. The matter of the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific was not brought up. It is understood that the officials for this system, which is now controlled by the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia, will be appointed in New York, or in Cincinnati, when the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific stockholders meet. This meeting has been looked forward to with much interest, as it was expected that the officials for the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific would be named formally and the East Tennessee take possession of that system.

The Seaboard Air-Line's road to Atlanta is progressing rapidly, and will be in operation in a few months. Trains are already running as far as Greenwood, and as far as new miles as far as new schedules go into effect. Track-laying is already completed to Athens, but no business is completed beyond Greenwood.

A contract has been let for the extension of the Norfolk and Western road through West Virginia to the Ohio river. Engineers of this company have surveyed a line for a Knoxville extension from Bristol, Tenn., west to Bean's Station, forty miles from Knoxville. The engineers will commence this week locating the road from Bristol. The surveyors have been in the field six weeks, and have run a line down the Holston Valley, via Kingsport and Rogersville.

Speaking of the recent rumor that Jay Gould had secured control of the Richmond

Terminal, General Alexander says the people of this country should hope and pray that it may be true, for it will mean a great deal for this section. Gould has probably bought $10,000,000 worth of Richmond Terminal stock, which, at the present market price, he could obtain for about $1,500,000. This would give him a place on the board and a voice in the control of the road.

Gould's idea, in his opinion, is to secure a new route by which the traffic of his western roads can be delivered to New York and the eastern markets. The Richmond Terminal system and the South Atlantic ports afford this outlet.

Heretofore the traffic from the Gould system has had an outlet over the southern lines. The Richmond Terminal will afford a new outlet, and such a deal as it is reported has been made means the turning of an immense amount of business in this direction. The western trade with the northern markets will come in this direction and be carried to New York by steamship from Savannah and other ports. The western supplies of boots, shoes and manufactured articles from the north and east will be carried in return by the same route.

This means a great deal for this country, if true. It means more ships for Savannah and more men on the wharves and more business generally. Mr. Gould knows he could lose nothing by buying Richmond Terminal stock at 14. Having a voice in its management, he can make satisfactory arrangements and by turning the immense traffic of his western lines in this direction he will build up the Richmond Terminal system and make a large profit by the increased value of its stock.

The Charleston, Wilmington and Norfolk railroad has been incorporated at Philadelphia with a capital of $8,000,000. John C. Naughton, of that city, is president, and the headquarters of the company are located there for the present. The road is to form a new route to the Atlantic coast, it is claimed, and will shorten the distance between northern cities and Charleston, S. C., and points farther south about 100 miles compared with existing lines. The purchase of the charter of the Mount Pleasant, Santee and Little River railroad in South Carolina, and of the Portsmouth and South Mills Railroad Company, in Virginia, was authorized at a recent meeting of the Charleston, Wilmington and Norfolk railroad. These charters, with the company's own, give it the right to build between Norfolk and Charleston 350 miles and branches. A contract has been made with the Carolina Construction Company to build the road, and the work has been begun from Charleston, S. C., to Norfolk, and most of the right-of-way has been secured.

Railroad Personalities.
Mr. D. P. Miller, the newly appointed traffic manager of the Queen and Crescent route, is said to be the youngest traffic manager in the country, but has already made his mark, and his extraordinary ability has been so universally recognized that his services were sought by several important systems prior to his appointment on the Queen and Crescent. Until recently he has guided the traffic matters of the St. Louis, Arkansas and Texas road (Cotton Belt line), with headquarters at St. Louis and Little Rock. He is but twenty-seven years of age.

It is now given out from Cincinnati that Mr. Charles Schiff will probably remove from Cincinnati to New Orleans and in future devote his time to the management of the New Orleans and Northeastern, Alabama and Vicksburg, and Vicksburg, Shreveport and Pacific railroads, of which lines he is president.

It is probable that the policy of the new Cincinnati Southern managers is to turn the western business over to the Cincinnati Southern at Chattanooga over the Memphis and Charleston and the Memphis and Little Rock and Cotton Belt. Randolph Fink, brother to Henry Fink, is president of the Little Rock road. Since his appointment to the office it is the most probable reason, why Mr. Schiff resigned as the vice president of the Cincinnati Southern. The western business has always heretofore gone over the Alabama Great Southern to Meridian, thence over the Meridian and Vicksburg, thence the Vicksburg, Shreveport and Pacific railroads, of which companies Mr. Schiff is president. The change of policy dissatisfied him, and railroad men say, rightly, too, for he could hardly see his road suffer at the hands of one of which he was the vice president. Hence, his refusal of the office.

The offices of auditor of earnings and auditor of expenses of the Charleston and Savannah railroad have been consolidated, and Mr. J. E. Smith has been appointed auditor.

Mr. O. T. Nelson, has been appointed roadmaster of the Georgia Pacific, with headquarters at West Point, Miss. He was formerly supervisor of the second division of the Mobile and Ohio.

It will not be very pleasing news, says The Cincinnati Enquirer, to the officials of the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific Railway Company, but nevertheless it is a fact, that almost a clean sweep is to be made by the new management. General Manager Carroll, General Freight Agent Ryan and General Passenger Agent will all give way to new men in the near future. Several other heads of departments will also be let go. Some of the present heads of departments may be offered other positions with the company, but it is not likely.

A Good Day's Work.
Weakness of itself is not a disease. It is however a most distressful symptom. Alas! how many weary days themselves about, every effort giving them distress, existing without any of the pleasurable sensations of robust health. Are you in this condition? Why? There is no excuse for feeling mean and miserable. Remove the cause of your distress, which undoubtedly is a state of bodily injury and a disordered system. How? Why by doing as others have done.

G. W. Chandler, Red Fork, Ark., writes: "I was so weak that it was only with great effort that I could exert myself. I used several bottles of Botanic Blood Balm, and can now do a good day's work."

"Able to do a good day's work." Is there not something refreshing in that expression? Strength to vigorously do this or that. Strength that is only overcome by natural fatigue. Strength that, when expended, is by rest and nature fully renewed. Such will be your reward if you give B. B. B. a trial.

H. B. Randolph, Brunswick, Ga., writes: "I was under the care of nine different doctors, but not one did me the good that Botanic Blood Balm has done me."

ALL FITS STOPPED by Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. No fits after first day's use. Marvellous cures. Treatise and $2 trial bottle free to fit cases. Send to Dr. Kline, 931 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa.

TO SWING TODAY.

HENRY MOORE, A WAYNE COUNTY MURDERER, AT JESUP.

A Final Appeal for the Man's Life Made Yesterday by the Police of the New Administration.

Henry Moore, the negro murderer, swings today at Jesup.

A last appeal for reprieve was made yesterday to Governor Northen and refused.

As stated in yesterday's CONSTITUTION one appeal had already been made this week. The governor's letter explains itself:

ATLANTA, Ga., November 18.—D. Watson Winn, priest; W. H. Berne, sheriff; Judge Courtland Synnott and T. H. Martin, grand jurors, gentlemen: Your petition in behalf of Henry Moore has been considered. I would gladly say the execution of the defendant if I could safely do so under my conception of my duty as governor. I have nothing before me except a bare request, unsupported by testimony of any kind. To stop the sentence of the court in the execution of the criminal laws of the state demands something more than a petition. I cannot, therefore, issue the order to stop the judgment of the court in this case. To do so would be equivalent to saying that the court had given him a fair trial.

W. J. NORTHEN, Governor.

Yesterday again a strong appeal was made in person by the negro's lawyer; but as there was still no evidence to warrant an interference with the sentence of a court, it was refused.

The following order was then spread upon the minutes of the executive department:

November 20.—In the matter of application for reprieve in the case of Henry Moore, sentenced to be hung in Wayne county, November 21, 1890, and after careful investigation of the case as presented to me, it is Ordered: That the application be and the same is hereby refused.

As the letters indicate, great caution is to be exercised in the granting of pardons under the new administration. No sentence will be interfered with unless fully warranted by testimony. A mere appeal, however numerous, will not be regarded as affecting the merits of the case.

For the first time, too, a careful record of applications for executive clemency is to be kept. Judges and solicitor generals are always to be consulted.

The cases will be taken up in a businesslike manner, and handled with all possible expedition.

But when Governor Northen pardons a man hereafter it may be very safely taken for granted that "it's all right."

CHRISTMAS IS COMING.

So Are All, or Nearly All, of the Ladies to Our Store.

If you want a fruit cake that is a veritable fruit cake, one that is thoroughly ripe, and will please the Christmas palate, now is the time to make it. Before making thought be sure that you come and see our citrons, our currants, our raisins, almonds, figs, etc. Our citrons run large, clear and fancy, and is the finest quality in Atlanta. Our currants are Vostizza's, the largest, cleanest and cost two and one-half cents per pound higher, but we will sell them at the same low price of last year. Our shelled almonds are Jordan stock, the finest, cleanest and are used largely by our best patrons. Our figs are extra selected crown, and twice as large as those sold by other houses. Come and see them, and when advising your friends where to go to get ingredients for their cake send them to us. The next thing is pure, absolutely pure spices; don't buy any thing but pure spices, they are the cheapest, and really have more to do with the fine flavor of your cake than any other one thing. We give a guarantee upon every grain, every ounce. Ours is the purest money and knowledge in business can buy. Plum pudding, sherry, coconut, unswetened; large fancy 30-50 cent cakes, go, all go to make up the full price. Then, too, we have all the herbs used for your turkeys—such as marjoram, thyme, savory and sage—all in large packages at low prices. Ours, too, is this year's packing, and consequently fresh. The sale of our Talo tea and Bijano coffee are still not up to the merits of the goods, and we ask you to try one pound; we will abide by your decision. We claim to be experts on hot tea and coffee. Of course we do not give $1.00 worth of presents with every 50 cents worth of each, but we will give you $1.00 value for 50 cents to try us. Come and try our home-made jellies and preserves, they are the best. We guarantee satisfaction, both in the service and quality of all our goods. We will cheerfully refund money when you are not pleased with any article bought in our store. Write or send for any thing nice in the grocery line. We cater to the best patronage. HOYT & THOMAS.

PUBLIC SAFETY DEMANDS

That only honest and reliable medicines should be placed upon the market. It cannot, therefore, be stated too emphatically, nor repeated too often, that all who are in need of a genuine Blood-purifier should be sure and ask for

Ayer's

Sarsaparilla

Your life, or that of some one near and dear to you, may depend on the use of this well-known remedy in preference to any other preparation of similar name. It is compounded of Honduras sarsaparilla (the variety most rich in curative properties), stillingia, maidrauke, yellow dock, and the iodides. The process of manufacture is original, skillful, scrupulously clean, and such as to secure the very best medicinal qualities of each ingredient. This medicine is not boiled nor heated, and is, therefore, not a decoction; but it is a compound extract, obtained by a method exclusively our own, of the best and most powerful alteratives, tonics, and diuretics known to pharmacy. For the last forty years, Ayer's has been the standard blood-purifier of the world—no other approaching it in popular confidence or universal demand. Its formula is approved by the leading physicians and druggists. Being pure and highly concentrated, it is the most economical of any possible blood medicine. Every purchaser of Sarsaparilla should insist upon having this preparation and see that each bottle bears the well-known name of

J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

In every quarter of the globe Ayer's Sarsaparilla is proved to be the best remedy for all diseases of the blood. Lowell druggists unite in testifying to the superior excellence of this medicine and to its great popularity in the city of its manufacture.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

PREPARED BY DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by Druggists. $1.50 per bottle. Worth $2.50 a bottle.
